2.4 Latino and Hispanic Terminology

According to the world's definition, Hispanic and Latino are often used interchangeably though they actually mean two different things. Hispanic refers to people who speak Spanish and/or are descended from Spanish-speaking populations, while Latino refers to people who are from or descended from people from Latin America. NHLAD wants to respect everyone that wishes to be identified as an individual.

As part of the National Hispanic Latino Association of the Deaf, we welcome "ALL", regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity or religion. We do not tolerate any discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity or religion.

2.5 Use of the word "D"eaf

The capitalized "D"eaf shall be used in all-inclusive manner to represent and include all people who may identify as Deaf , Deaf Blind, Deaf Disabled, deaf, deafblind, deaf disabled, hard of hearing, late-deafened, hearing impaired people and other community subsets in recognition of our community's human right to learn and use American Sign Language

2.6 Respect

We respect our members, donors and all stakeholders and encourage the collaborative sharing of perspective and ideas. NHLAD shall also strive to be a "safe place" enabling all to feel confident that they will be exposed to discrimination, criticism, harassment and other emotional or physical harm
